The Mission of Catechesis

“Quite early on, the name catechesis was given to the totality of the Church’s effort to make disciples, to help men believe that Jesus is the Son of God so that believing they might have life in his name, and to educate and instruct them in his life, thus building up the body of Christ.

“Catechesis is an education in the faith of children, young people, and adults which includes especially the teaching of Christian doctrine imparted, generally speaking, in an organic and systematic way, with a view to initiating the hearer into fullness of Christian life.
